DAY 2 : MARRAKECH – OUARZAZATE - ZAGORA

Pick up from the hotel and departure crossing the Atlas Mountains through the Col de Tizin Ticka towards Ouarzazate, panoramic view of the city and Kasbah Taourirt; which was the residence of Pasha Glaoui, governor of Marrakech at that time. Visit of its main rooms where the “del Pacha” room stands out, with beautiful views of the valley. Free time. Continuation to Zagora, the city that lives from the cultivation of the rich dates that its oases give and that in ancient times was the starting point of the caravans to black Africa. Dinner and accommodation.

DAY 3 : ZAGORA – ALNIF – ERFOUD - DUNES OF MERZOUGA

Breakfast and departure on the road that crosses the most impressive stone desert in Africa until reaching Alnif. Free time. Continuation to Erfoud, in the confines of the Sahara. We leave the road and continue along tracks with wide horizons, heading to the high dunes of Merzouga in the middle of the Sahara.

Dinner and accommodation under millions of stars,

DAY 4 – MERZOUGA - MERZOUGA

Do not miss the opportunity to enjoy watching the sunrise over the dunes of the Desert.

After breakfast, free time to enjoy the morning among the dunes, then departure by 4x4 to visit the area, starting with the town of Merzouga where we will meet the women of an Association that works for the conservation of the environment and development, preserving a traditional way of life linked to the desert and the oases. In the afternoon we move to the nearby Ksar Khamlia where the Gnawa Bambara musicians will delight us with their songs and dances.

Dinner and accommodation at the hotel.
